The first flag to have any resemblance to the present Old Glory was a flag flown at the staffs of the Colonial Fleet in December, 1775. Although this flag was never formally acknowledged as the flag of this Country, the Grand Union Flag was the standard of the continental Army when the latter came into being in January, 1776.

Through the efforts of a woman, Betsy Ross, the first flag consisted of thirteen stripes, alternate red and white; the union being thirteen stars, white in a blue field. Thus we have the stars from heaven, the red from our mother country and the white stripes representing liberty.

On August 13, 1846, this flag was flown over El Pueblo de Nuestra Senora la Reina de Los Angeles de Porciuncula for the first time.

This year we are celebrating the centennial of this event, and many historic events have taken place during this period. Therefore, as patriotic citizens, we women of the Van Nuys Woman's Club should do all in our power to keep "Old Glory" flying.

A MEDITATION

Our Father in Heaven—we pray Thee, give the world Peace—Peace in heart and life “that passeth understanding.”

Enrich our hearts with the gift of understanding womanhood that we may be a sister to all peoples.

Broaden our narrow lives that we may forget those little deeds in others, and see only their beautiful services Thou dost see.

Make us to be reasonable in demands, and never be cheap in mind and deed; and help us to use economy in comment of others' failings; and that it may be said of us “She hath done what she could.”

Eleanor Jeanette Page

OUR THEME FOR THE YEAR

“Friendship to All”

PLEDGE TO THE FLAG

'' I pledge allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America and to the Republic for which it stands, one nation, indivisible, with Liberty and Justice for all. ''

THE AMERICAN'S CREED

I believe in the United States of America as a government of the people, by the people, for the people, whose just powers are derived from the consent of the governed; a democracy in a republic; a sovereign Nation of many sovereign States; a perfect Union, one and inseparable, established upon the principles of freedom, equality, justice and humanity for which American patriots sacrificed their lives and fortunes.

I therefore believe it is my duty to my country to love it; to support its Constitution; to obey its laws; to respect its flag; and to defend it against all enemies.

William Tyler Page

STAR-SPANGLED BANNER

O say! can you see, by the dawn's early light,
What so proudly we hail'd at the twilight's last gleaming?

Whose broad stripes and bright stars, thro' the perilous fight,

O'er the ramparts we watch'd, were so gallantly streaming;

And the rockets' red glare, the bombs bursting in air,
Gave proof thro' the night that our flag was still there.

O say, does the Star-Spangled Banner yet wave
O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave?

Oh, thus be it ever when free men shall stand
Between their loved homes and the war's desolation,
Blessed with victory and peace, may the heav'n rescued
land

Praise the Power that hath made and preserved us a nation!

Then conquer we must when our cause it is just,
And this be our motto: "In God is our trust."

CHORUS

And the star-spangled banner in triumph shall wave
O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave.
